There is a lot going on right now. The City is continuing to privatize our public housing with RAD, while also pushing forward with megaprojects and rezonings that threaten the well-being of our communities.

JFAC, in coordination with other groups, is looking for answers. In addition to updating you on the issues, we'll discuss ways residents can take more control over local land and our lives, and pursue legal action against NYCHA.

Join us at 6p to get started taking legal action!
